

Japan Foundation Budapest Local Project Support Program – Japanese Language Education – 【Application Instructions】

1. Overview

This program is intended to promote Japanese-language education in Hungary by supporting a wide range of activities essential to the dissemination of Japanese-language and the development of Japanese-language education.

2. Eligible Areas

Hungary.

3. Requirements of the Proposed Projects

- (1) This time the Japan Foundation will accept applications for projects that would be implemented during Japanese fiscal year 2018(April 1, 2018 – March 31, 2019).
- (2) The plan and method of implementation must be appropriate and there must be ample expectations that programs will yield good results.
- (3) Programs must not be used for religious or political purposes.
- (4) Programs must not be commercial activities.

4. Program Description

Applying organizations and groups may apply for a combination of programs that meet their needs, depending on their activity; examples of eligible programs for this support are given below.

Items	Description
Staff Expansion Grant	In principle, this grant partially covers reward for Japanese-language teachers when the applicant starts a new course, increase the number of courses, etc. Existing courses are also eligible but only up to one year .
Teaching Material Purchase Grant	This grant partially covers the cost to purchase teaching materials and supplementary materials needed by Japanese-language teachers to conduct Japanese-language courses. (Note that the Japan Foundation is not able to buy and send teaching materials in kind from Japan)
Other Original Proposals	This grant partially covers the cost involved in implementing projects planned by the applicant that aim to promote Japanese - language education and train Japanese - language teachers. (e.g. to hold programs such as speech, presentation and debate contests that are intended to motivate students and arise interest in Japanese-language education, to hold seminars and training sessions for Japanese-Language teachers, to publish teaching materials consistent with the local curriculum and needs etc.)

【 Points to be Noted 】

A. Staff Expansion Grant

- (a) Only the costs for teachers who are hired by the applicants are eligible. This grant is given on the condition that the supported course and post of teachers persists after the grant from the Japan Foundation ends.
- (b) On the condition that the supported course and post of teachers persists after the grant from the Japan Foundation ends, an existing course is also eligible but duration of the grant is up to one year.
- (c) Grants are not given to cover overhead costs, such as the teacher's housing costs or commuting costs and the applicant's management costs.
- (d) Duration of the grant is up to three years (36 months). (*Duration of the grant for an existing course is up to one year.) In order to receive continuing support, the applicant has to request and be approved by the Japan Foundation each year. At this time, the Japan Foundation will accept grant applications for courses that will start within Japanese fiscal year 2018 (from April 1, 2018 to March 31, 2019).

B. Teaching Material Purchase Grant

Grant is to be used to buy teaching materials for the use of teachers and applicants have responsibility to keep them. Purchased materials could not be given to students, but materials to be lent to students can be eligible.

Although the Japan Foundation cannot send teaching materials directly from Japan, applicants which would like to purchase teaching materials from bookstores in Japan are able to delegate the right to receive the grant to the bookstores. In that case the shipping cost and custom fee are also eligible of this grant, but please note that applicants need to take the payment procedure.

* Note that grantee must submit the Japan Foundation the list of teaching materials with application. Materials judged as inappropriate by the Japan Foundation are not able to be covered by the grant. (The results will be noticed with Notice of Grant Approval.)

C. Non Eligible Elements for Grant Project

(a) To prevent the beneficiaries of the Japan Foundation's programs from becoming entrenched and give a greater number of institutions/organizations opportunities to be supported, the duration of being recipient of the grant in the same program is permitted within 3 years in total. Proposals for the 4th year may be declined in principle.

(b) Following elements are not eligible for Grant programs:

D. Project Sheet (I)-(III)

There are three project sheets for each of the types of grant that can be applied for: (I) Staff Expansion Grant, (II) Teaching Material Purchase Grant, and (III) Other Original Proposals. Please fill in the project sheets suited to your project. Only the project sheet that is applied for is required to be sent.

Project Sheet (I): Staff Expansion Grant

1. Reason for Application:

Please describe the need to establish a new course or augment the number of courses based on the current status of Japanese-language education at the applying organization. Moreover, please summarize the impact and effect this would have on students and Japanese-language education in Hungary.

2. Outline of Proposed Project:

(1) Period of the Proposed Project:

Please write down the duration for which the applicants would like to receive grants from the Japan Foundation for overhead costs of the staff to teach the new/augmented courses. In addition, please clarify the number of days the school would be closed (period in which classes would not be held) during this period. Please understand that the earliest the grants could be sent is one month before the start of this period and should be paid by March 31, 2019, and the grant must be used during the period covered by the grant. Duration should be for this year (1 year) even if a continued grant is expected from the applicant. The Foundation will accept applications for grants only for courses that will start within Japanese fiscal year 2018 (from April 1, 2018 through March 31, 2019).

(2) Outline of Courses Newly Established, Augmented, etc.:

Please provide an outline of the new/augmented course(s) that will be receiving the grants through this program offered by the applying organization (Course Title, Course Content, Achievement of Japanese-language, Number of Students per class, Hours of Instruction).

(3) Appointee of the Staff to Teach the New/Augmented Courses:

① If the appointee has been chosen:

Please note the name, current position, area of expertise, and position after hiring of the appointee, as well as why the appointee was selected and how he/she was selected. Please attach a Curriculum Vita of the appointee.

② If the appointee has not been chosen:

Please describe the recruitment and selection process for appointee and how he/she will be chosen.

(4) Appointee of the Staff to the Existing Courses:

In case of applying for support for existing course, please describe the necessity, background and reason of support in detail, in addition to answer the above questions 2.(1)~(3).

3. Outline of All Existing Japanese-language Courses:

Please provide an outline of all existing Japanese-language courses offered by the applying organization (Course Titles, Course Content, Achievement of Japanese-language, Number of Students per class, Hours of Instruction). Please note that in principle, only the courses mentioned above in 2. (2) are eligible for this grant program.

4. Budget:

Please list the annual costs required to pay an honorarium for a teacher who teaches the applied course, divided into necessary expenses (outgo) and financial resources (income). For outgo, please note the salary expressed as wages per hour of instruction and the total teaching hours per year for which the teacher will be responsible, as well as the total salary paid annually. For income, please note the percentage that the applicant will pay and the percentage that the grant from the Japan Foundation will be used for, as well as the weight of tuition in the portion of the costs covered by the applying organization so that income from course fees and other financial sources are clearly divided. Please note the currency unit in which the salary will be paid (HUF).

5. Plan to be Independent from Our Grant:

Please write the budget plan and the implementation plan to run the course independently without Japan Foundation grants after this grant has expired will be implemented every year.

Please concretely describe the means by which the specific plans to run the course independently without Japan Foundation grants after this grant has expired will be implemented every year, as well as the means by which the post will be maintained and utilized.

6. Evaluating Method of Expected Outcome and Effect:

Please describe exactly, with numerical indexes as much as possible, how implementing this project will have an effect on students and what this effect will be, and how this project will develop Japanese-language education in the country and region, as well as the specific methods that will be used to evaluate the outcome and effects after the project has been carried out (for example, questionnaires, evaluations by program evaluators, etc.).

7. Attachment Required:
